From Frank Lloyd Wright:

You can go many ways. You can take the 101 south frontage road and follow directions above from the "North Scottsdale/Phoenix" directions.

You can also head south on Hayden and go two ways depending on the traffic:

1. Turn left/east at Raintree→make a right at the first light at 82nd Street→take first left at Evans and you'll see the building on your right hand side. Watch for Napa Auto Parts.
2. Or from Hayden, turn left at light at Northsight→go through the light at Raintree and take your first right at Evans →drive about 1/2 mile and watch for the Yoga Village sign on the left in the same building as Napa Auto

To avoid traffic:

Avoid Hayden traffic by taking Northsight directly to Evans, then turn right →drive about 1/2 mile and watch for the Yoga Village sign on the left in the same building as Napa Auto.

See you at Yoga Village!
